Stock Market

New York

New York, January 15.—By comparison with the two previous days of weakness, the stock market gave a better account of itself to-day, but it nevertheless continued to reflect the disordered state of speculative sentiment. The market was nervous and irregular with contradictory movements among various issues.

Some stocks sold helow yesterday's low point, although the range of price was much narrower and during a large part of the day many of the leaders showed small net gains. Reading, Lehigh Valley and Southern Pacific were weakest of the more prominent issues, while metal shares developed strength. The market was most unsettled during early trading and as the session advanced grew steadler until in the late afternoon it made a fair showing of strength, with a number of gains of a noint or more.

Various matters operated to check the decline. There was evidences of determined support during periods of weakness which restricted operations on the short side. The position of the European markets was another favorable influence, and purchasas of stocks by Europe were the heaviest in some time. It was estimated that Europe hought 4600 to 5000 shares, London taking chiefly steel and Union Pacific, and Paris Amalgamated. Traders with heavy commitments on the short side showed some uncusiness and covering operations were carried on extensively-

Berlin. January 15.—St. Petersburg dispatches to-day confirmed the report circulated in Paris that the Russian imperial family is awaiting an interesting event, expected early in the spring.

The court chamberlain has been or dered to omit the Carrina's name from all court functions, and this is the explanation of why the Empress did not attend the Christmas festival of the Cossacks at the palace recently.

Czar Nicholas II. married the Princess Alexandra Alex, or Alexandra Feoderovna, daughter of Ludwig IV.

Grand Duke of Hesse, in November 1991. They have five children—four daughters, the Grand Duchess Olga, the Grand Duchess Marie: the Grand Duchess Anastasia and one son, the Grand Duke Alexis, the Czarevitch.

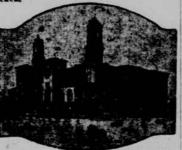

PASTOR PAYS FINE AFTER BIG ROW

Omaha, Neb., January 15.—After making a dramatic declaration that he would "go to h—I rather than pay a $10 fme," in police court, the Rev. Frank M. Weeks, a Presbyterian minister, and owner of the Lafayette apartments, today paid the fine levied for assault upon William Kuhn, a department store messenger. Kuhn was delivering two suit cases to the apartment and being unable to open the electrically-operated front door, forced the lock. The Rev. Mr. Weeks ejected Kuhn with force.

Are You a Bad Investment or Do You Pay a Dividend?

No corporation pays dividends out of its gross earnings. It is only he net income which can be used for that purpose. It is the same into the individual—no matter what your carning capacity may be, you do not save something each year, over and above your expenses, ou are a BAD INVESTMENT for you can not declare a dividend lace yourself on a dividend paying basis. Capitalize your earning ower. Put by something each month out of what you make and, as he principal stockholder, you will reap your reward in the profits.

THE BANK OF COMMERCE AND TRUSTS invites you to make it the depository for the funds you can save of which you expect to pay dividends to yourself.
